Pictures Of Wreckage Of The Huge Airship Roma

Charred Bodies Of Victims Taken From Airship Ruins Many Perished In This Mass Of Tangled Steel

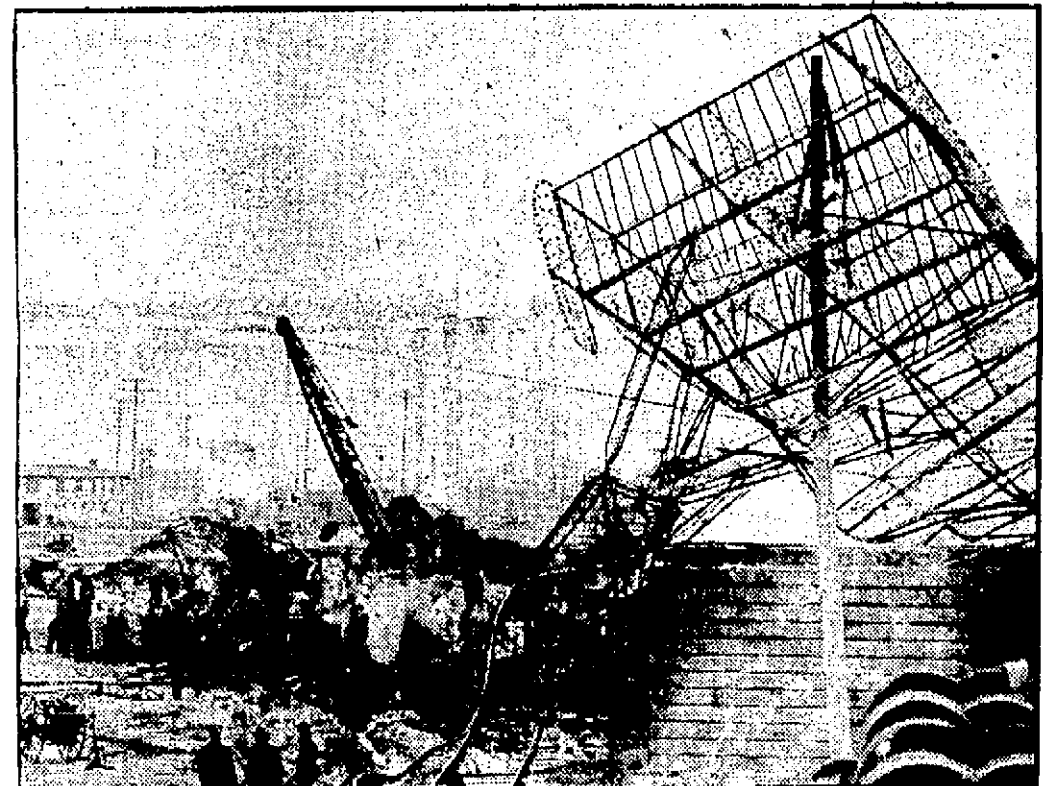

Rescue parties of soldiers and civilians worked for hours in the debris of the ailing dirigible, Roma, wrecked and ravaged by flames at Norfolk, Va. This photograph, taken shortly after the disaster, shows the search for bodies of victims. In the center rescuers are shown removing the charred body of one of those who lost his life in the air accident.

Derrieks were requisitioned by army rescue parties to lift the forward end of this giant airship. Roma, so the search for bodies would be unhampered. The huge steel framework was smashed and bent by the explosion, imprisoning many victims in that part of the wreckage pictured here.

Roma's Rudder Left As Grotesque Sign Of Disaster

When the great dirigible collapsed at Norfolk, it smashed into a heavily charged electric wire, which set fire to the gas in the bag. As the Roma exploded and fell the rudder was left hanging on a telephone pole, a landmark to the thousands crowding to the scene.

Ohio In Path Of Cold Wave And Ice Storm

CHICAGO, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The northwest continued ice and snow bound today and the blizzard which swept in from the Rocky Mountains Tuesday night with thunder and lightning, spread its influence eastward and southward.

Temperatures were falling rapidly early today. Western Minnesota and the Dakotas reported from 5 to 12 degrees below zero, and a cold wave began to affect the southwest as far as Central Texas. At Chicago, where a warm record for a Washington's birthday was set yesterday, the thermometer began to tumble rapidly.

In the northwest train schedules continued to be seriously interrupted and in some instances abandoned, while wire service was handicapped. Hundreds of telegraph line poles went down under weight of freezing rain or sleet and winds of from 20 to 50 miles an hour which piled snow in some places in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin to heights of 20 feet.

In the southwest a severe glaze storm prevailed over a wide area.

In Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and northern Texas, warm, soaking rains fell yesterday, turning to a sheet of ice when the temperature suddenly dropped. The rain broke a long drought.

In some parts of southern Minnesota one to three inches of ice, formed as in the southwest, covered the ground. Seven high school students of Welcome, Minnesota, skated seven miles to Fairmount on the public highway, which was covered with smooth ice.

At Duluth, Minn., nearly 30 inches of snow had fallen early today. Jamestown, North Dakota, reported a temperature of 12 below zero.

Reports from the southwest were that yesterday's weather was expected to prove highly beneficial to crops. Despite unseasonably warm temperature during the past few weeks, it was said, there had been very little budding.

COLUMBUS, O., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Ohio is in the direct path of the blizzard and cold wave which is working its way eastward, and practically all portions of the Buckeye State will experience a drop in temperature of from thirty to fifty degrees within the next 24 to 36 hours, according to the United States weather bureau here.

The thermometer will begin dropping late this afternoon in western Ohio, and should record freezing temperatures over most of the state by tomorrow morning. By tomorrow evening a low temperature of ten degrees above zero should be recorded, the forecast said.

Rain turning to snow will accompany the colder weather tonight, and may result in an ice storm over this portion of the country.

Storm Raging Eastward

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The storm and cold wave which have made the northwest ice and snow-bound will reach the Great Lakes region, the Ohio valley, Tennessee and the east gulf states early tomorrow and will spread over the Atlantic coastal region by tomorrow night according to the forecast issued today by the weather bureau. The western storm had its center early today over the upper lake region and with its progress tending east-northeastward cold wave warnings were issued for lower Michigan, the Ohio valley, Tennessee and the east gulf states.

Generally, the bureau's forecast indicated, the cold wave portion of the disturbances will be preceded as in the northwest by snow and rain.

Operators Refuse To Meet Lewis On Wage Demands

CHICAGO, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The formal call for a referendum vote by the United Mine Workers of America to determine whether there would be a national coal strike on April 1, was sent out today, it was announced by John L. Lewis, president of the union, here today.

PAY SLASH HITS OILERS, FIREMEN

CHICAGO, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Another pay slash, this time hitting 10,000 railroad firemen and others, was made by the United States railroad labor board today when it announced rules, effective March 1, eliminating extra pay until after the tenth hour and setting up a "split trick" of eight hours within a spread of twelve without any overtime pay.

Following several other decisions virtually restoring the ten hour day for railroad workers, the board today authorized the roads to pay only pro-rata wages after the regular eight hours which the board retained in principle as constituting a day's work.

Time and one-half will be paid after ten hours. In the case of the split trick straight time will be paid for the first ten hours work, whether included in the twelve hour spread or not, and time and one-half will be given thereafter.

Formerly the firemen and others, all of whom work around railroad shops, were paid time and one-half after eight hours.

Sundays and holidays will be paid for at the pro-rata rate a minimum of three hours pay being made for two hours' work or less. Monthly rated employees' wages are to be adjusted to eliminate the old time and one-half provisions.

Ten rules regarding discipline, grievances, discrimination against committee men and similar matters were recommended to the employees and the roads for further negotiation. The board's new rules supplant the national agreement made during federal control, which has been in effect since January 16, 1920.

Opposed To Reservation Submitted By Lodge

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—A modified blanket reservation to the senate foreign relations committee today by Chairman Lodge after a conference with President Harding, met with immediate opposition from several Republican as well as Democratic members.

The new reservation intended as a substitute for that proposed several days ago by Senator Brandegee, Republican, Connecticut, provides that nothing in the treaty shall be construed as committing the United States to an exercise of armed force without the consent of congress. After more than an hour's debate, which failed to win over to the new proposal any of the senators who had supported the Brandegee reservation, the committee adjourned until tomorrow without action.

Search For Gun Used In Taylor Murder

LOS ANGELES, CAL., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—A second search was planned here today of the location where Harry M. Fields, under arrest in Detroit, was reported to have said the pistol used to kill William Desmond Taylor, film director, had been disposed of.

Deputy sheriffs searched last night, upon receipt of a telegram from Detroit authorities containing Fields' alleged declaration on the subject but without results.

They also announced they would look today for a bank teller, who, according to other information given in Detroit, by Fields, changed a $1,000 bill in order that persons named by him as having committed the murder might have $800 with which to pay him for driving the automobile in which they rode to the Taylor apartments.

Plea For Religious Tolerance

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—A plea for religious tolerance has been made by Harford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, in a letter to the editor of "The Protestant," published in Washington, D. C., it was announced today.

"This country," the letter said, "was formed by men who sought religious tolerance and it is that spirit which has made it free, fine and worth living in. I happen to be a Protestant and attend a Protestant church, but as a member of many Masonic bodies, of which I have taken a more or less active part, I have great admiration for that institution, the Catholic church. Its stand and teachings for the preservation of the integrity of our lawful government are well exemplified in the heroic deaths of men who served in my own command, and might I add that the chaplains of that faith gave human touch to their splendid service that made them beloved by all, protestant and Catholic alike."

Can You See Your Ribs?

"It wasn't that I wanted to get fat—no, I just wanted to put on about a pound more flesh, then I'd be just right. I've nibbled at diets, forgot big meals, I've haunted health resorts, been to fine climates, guzzled milk, buttermilk, olive oil, emulsions, swallowed pills, digestion aids, and a score of other 'wonder' foods. Finally, it dawned on me. None of these things was building up the new red blood cells I needed. I took S. S. S., the greatest blood-renewing builder, firm-flesh producer, blood-cleanser known. I put on 7 pounds in a month, and my nerves, instead of strings feel like wires. S. S. S. has the world beat."

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable in its medicinal ingredients. It has produced amazing results in building up run-down, thin-faced, ambitious men, and in making women of all ages more plump and beautiful, and younger looking. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Golf Is Great Help To Ball Players

CHICAGO, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Golf has been added to the curriculum for the conditioning of baseball players, according to reports from the various training camps of the major league clubs. From Hot Springs, Arkansas, word was received that Babe Ruth, the home run king, lost little time getting out his golf sticks and visiting the links.

Eddie Collins, second baseman of the Chicago White Sox, is another athlete who enjoys a morning round on the links, while Bill Killefer, manager of the Chicago Cubs, showed his love for the game when he led a foursome around the links at Catalina Island, the Cubs' training camp, the other day. Rain had prevented practice for the athletes and Killefer got up the foursome.

Secretary Harry Graham, of the Chicago White Sox, said that it is a common occurrence now to see a few golf bags filled with sticks thrown in with the club's luggage whenever it hits the road. Baseball writers, traveling with the game and also have taken to the game and much of the early day is spent on the links, players often meeting scribes, while the writers from one city often battle their fellow scribes in other cities on the links.

William Killefer said he believed golf to be one of the finest kinds of exercise.

Enjoy Visit In Southland

Mrs. Mary Burke of Fullerton and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fullerton of Greenup have returned from a three weeks' visit in the South. They visited relatives in Jacksonville, Florida, and during the three weeks enjoyed motor trips to St. Augustine and other points of interest. Mrs. Burke reports the roads very good for automobile traffic and the weather hot like in July in this section of the country.

They also visited Atlanta, Ga., the New York City of the South and Lookout Mountain enroute home. The guide that took them to the top of Lookout Mountain told them of several incidents between the Confederates and Yanks, and Mrs. Burke recalled them as stories told her by her father, J. H. Fullerton, who fought with the Army of the North. They were greatly surprised at the beauties of the South and are looking forward to the next trip they will be able to make to the southern states.

PRISONER IS UNDER SURVEILLANCE

The strange conduct of Roy Rice, 45, a prisoner at the county jail, has led Dr. W. W. Smith, jail physician, and officers to believe that the man may be a victim of amnesia and for that reason is being kept under close surveillance.

Rice claims to have seen military service in Panama, the Philippines and France, and insists that he was badly gassed while in France. He is listless at all times, sits staring into space for hours at a time and always uneasy at night. His mind appears to be almost a blank and is unable to tell how long he has been in jail or what for.

It was stated that his case will be further investigated and it is possible he may be turned over to the government for treatment.

Rice hails from Mayville and he was sent to jail two months ago from Municipal court to await grand jury action under a charge of stealing harness from the Standard Oil Company barn in the West End.

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm liquefies, breathing becomes easier, taking in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter cough.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a quart bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. Dr. J. W. Oberst, who has been a very sick man at his home, Seventh and Gay streets, was reported slightly better Thursday.

Why---

EDGEMONT CRACKERS

are DIFFERENT and SO GOOD

The Answer Is—Men, Materials, Machinery

Men
It was not by luck nor by chance that The Green & Green Company grew from a small one-oven plant to the big modernly equipped bakery in which Edgemont Crackers are made.

But by the close co-operation of department heads supported by experienced men and women, who, with the skill of long practice, turn "Edgemont" quality materials into "Edgemont" Quality Crackers with the aid of most modern machinery.

Albert Bleile, our general superintendent, has grown up with our business. He has had 25 years experience in the manufacture of Crackers and is a recognized authority among the Cracker bakers of this Country.

FRED DIEFENBACH
Master of Milling

Bakers produce not only superior—but more uniform Crackers.

These men supervise an organization you can always depend on to make for you "Edgemont Crackers" of high quality and of a tastefulness that cannot be found in baked goods less carefully made.

Materials

Crackers to be good must be made of good materials, flour being the principal material used. In order to control a uniformly high-grade flour we installed our own milling plant.

We grind only the choicest wheat in the Great Miami Valley—the heart of the world's best winter-wheat belt.

Cracker Flour at its best is fluffy and fragrant with a delightful sweet-wheat aroma. "Edgemont" flour never loses fluffiness or fragrance—giving "Edgemonts" their sweet-wheat flavor.

Edgemont Crackers are different and better because they are made of "our own carefully made" flour, shortened with purest kettle-rendered leaf lard, proven by test, the best for crackers—mixed with purest water, filtered and softened by our own equipment—raised with purest yeast—insured uniform goodness by a bit of purest bicarbonate of soda—sprinkled with purest salt to give zest to the eating—baked to a turn—then toasted a rich golden brown.

Machinery

BAKING

Our machinery and appliances are the most modern the market affords. Many devices are our own inventions, reducing laborious hand operations to the minimum.

To sum it all up Edgemont Crackers are DIFFERENT and SO GOOD, because The Green & Green Co. insists they shall be so. Employing superior bakers, using best materials, operating most modern machinery, and with a fleet of 23 Green Motor Trucks delivering "Edgemonts" oven-fresh to grocers—

So that you can serve Edgemont Crackers as bread—bread in its purest and least expensive form.

All independent grocers can supply you. Always sold in GREEN tins or GREEN packages.

Liquor Found; Philip Meldick Fined

The following from the Wellston Sentinel is of interest here as Mr. Meldick is a frequent visitor to this city and is well known in Portsmouth: What is reported as one of the latest bootlegging catches in this county, was made yesterday by Sheriff Davis and Harry Dyer, of the Columbus Federal office, when Philip Meldick, a well known farmer and cattleman living at Mabees Corner, was taken into custody and in a hearing before Mayor Dauber, of Jackson, was fined $1,000 and costs, amounting to $1,017.72. Three gallons of whiskey were found in the cellar under the house, besides more than fifteen bottles containing a portion of the liquor were found in the barn, and scattered around in the different buildings over the farm. A copper kettle was also found in an empty house near by. Louis Flaker, another resident of that vicinity, was also arrested for the possession of intoxicating liquor, but he pled not guilty and his trial was set for Monday, February 27. ## Fleischmann's fresh yeast helps digestion and cleans a coated tongue

THOUSANDS of men and women have found relief from various digestive disturbances by eating Fleischmann's Yeast.

It is human nature to want to find out "why." So far as science can tell us this is the reason:

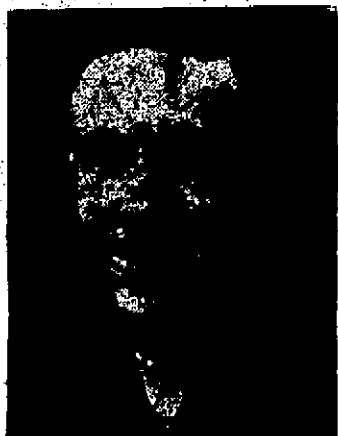

Fleischmann's Yeast is a food abundant in certain elements which are necessary to health and life itself. It promotes the flow of bile and of pancreatic juice. It has a remarkably beneficial effect on the whole digestive system. It cleans a coated tongue.

Try Fleischmann's fresh yeast in orange juice or, if you prefer, in milk. Men like it in mill shakes and malted milks. Women like it spread on bread or crackers.

Keep your digestion in the pink of condition and your tongue clean and healthy by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast fresh every day before or between meals. Get Fleischmann's Yeast fresh daily from your grocer.

The familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label is the only form in which Fleischmann's Yeast is sold

RICHARDS "THE WIZARD" GREETED BY ANOTHER AVALANCHE OF QUESTIONS; SEND YOURS IN NOW

RICHARDS, THE WIZARD

The following is the third installment of answers to questions submitted by readers of the Evening Times to Richards, The Wizard, and the letters are pouring in by the hundreds in every mail, and it is keeping Richards and his two private secretaries busy every minute of their spare time when not at the theatre in preparing the answers. Although Richards claims his work to be strictly scientific many of the answers show such an intimate knowledge of the personal affairs of many of our prominent citizens that they almost border upon the supernatural. Richards is appearing all this week at the Sun Theatre with his big show of wonders which is one of the largest, most elaborate and entertaining attractions that has appeared in the local theatre this season as Mr. Richards is acknowledged as one of America's foremost artists, and he carries a car load of special scenery, a big company and special musical program. All questions are being answered through The Times in the order in which they reach this office, however, Richards also answers questions during the performance at the theatre, and the questions are coming from long distances as well as Portsmouth. Many of the letters coming from such towns as Pomeroy, O., Toombs, Ky., Oak Hill, O., Jackson, Waverly, Peabody, Wheelersburg, La., Waverly, Ironton, Effort, O., and many others, which shows distinctly the far reaching value of The Times circulation. The following is the third installment of questions:

C. P. L.—Who and when will I marry?
 Ans.—You will marry John S. who took you to the Columbia Theatre last Saturday night. You will be married the last week of this coming April, and one year from this coming August you will be the mother of a boy.
 B. B.—Would it be best to stay where I am or go to housekeeping?
 Ans.—Would not advise a change for about two more months, after which I see that you will be better satisfied in a home of your own.
 B. S.—Will I be able to sell my house in the near future?
 Ans.—You will have a fair offer within the next few months, and would advise that you accept as you will not be able to get the price you are now asking.
 L. K. H.—Is my husband true to me, and where does he spend his many evenings away from home?
 Ans.—He is as true as the average, and spends his time in the company of men friends.
 A. A.—Will my father recover from his illness?
 Ans.—A change of climate later on, will be of great benefit to him, and I see a slow recovery.
 M. W.—Where is my dog "Spot"?
 Ans.—He is now in the possession of a family by the name of Williams. They found him straying alone and adopted him and have given him a good home.
 L. R.—Will my daughter and son-in-law recently married accomplish anything?
 Ans.—They will experience some difficulty for the first few years of their married life, but their luck will change for the better after the birth of their second child.
 J. C.—Have not heard from my brother for ten years. Can you tell me if he is still living and where?

 Ans.—He went overseas with the Princess Pat Regiment of Canada, and was one of the unfortunate ones who did not come back.
 J. C. S.—Do you think my oil lenses will prove good and when? Shall I buy more?
 Ans.—See you getting nothing from these for at least another year, and would advise that you do not buy any more, but just hold on to what you already have.
 C. G.—Who will I marry and when?
 Ans.—You will marry the fellow by the name of Robert, whom you have been out with several times lately.
 M. G.—Can you please tell me if I will ever get the man I really love?
 Ans.—Would advise that you give up thought of him as he will never mean any more in your life than he already does.
 S. R.—Will I ever regain my health?
 Ans.—Consult an eminent specialist at once as proper treatment will restore your health in a short time.
 H. E.—Does my friend care about me and is he true to me?
 Ans.—He is as true as any fellow of his age, and cares for you, but is very much interested in another party, and would advise that you give up serious thought of him as you are not at all suited domestically.
 V. R.—What has become of my string of pearls?
 Ans.—Cannot mention names through the newspaper, but your suspicions in the matter are entirely correct, and would advise that you go to the party about the pearls and you will receive some further information.
 J. M. C.—Will I dispose of my property soon, and to good advantage?
 Ans.—You will have a very good offer during the next two months and would advise that you accept as this will be as good a price as you will be able to obtain for the property.
 A. L. S.—Will my wife and I ever make up and go back together?
 Ans.—Would not advise this as you are poorly matched and will not enjoy lasting domestic happiness. Also see another marriage for you later on.
 R. F.—Where is my boy friend who left town suddenly, and why does he not write?
 Ans.—He is at this time in Columbus, Ohio, and very much infatuated with a young lady there, who occupies his mind and attention most of the time.
 J. G.—Would I make good at boxing?
 Ans.—Would not advise you to try it as you will gain nothing by it, and it will be of no particular benefit to your health.
 W. V. C.—Would it be to my interest to make a change?
 Ans.—See that you would benefit by it, if you will go to a larger city such as Columbus, as you possess rather unusual business ability and will be able to secure a better position later on.

 M. L. L.—Will my husband get his health back again?
 Ans.—He needs complete rest and a change of environment and climate will prove very beneficial in restoring his health.
 F. B.—Will I change my position in the near future?
 Ans.—Would not advise a change for at least five or six more months, as you will have an opportunity at about that time to enter into business for yourself at which you will do fairly well especially after the first four or five months.
 T. H.—Would like to know what has become of the boy we raised as he has not written or been to see us for two years?
 Ans.—He is now connected with Shillito's department store in Cincinnati, Ohio, and mail addressed there will be sent to him.
 W. A. N.—I have an offer of another job, shall I accept it or keep the old one?
 Ans.—Would not advise a change for you as your present position holds a very good future for you if you will make it your business to take advantage of your opportunities.
 F. R.—Why does my husband act so strangely and does he really go to Cincinnati each Saturday as he tells me?
 Ans.—Your husband goes to Cincinnati, but he has been taking another woman with him. I cannot mention her name in the paper under such circumstances as her husband is connected in business here, but will be pleased to give you full information if you will bring your question to the Ladies' Only Matinee on Friday.
 This is Richards' final question for today but another installment of questions and answers will appear again tomorrow and Saturday. If your question was sent in early enough you will receive an answer, or Richards will be glad to answer you during the mind reading portion of his big show at the Sun Theatre.

BAD STOMACH CAUSED ST. VITUS DANCE

Chronic Indigestion and Constipation Threatened Her Life
 It may sound by a strange and far-fetched fact but nevertheless it is a fact that most nervous troubles are closely associated with and often caused by serious disorders of the stomach and bowels. If the stomach is sour and the food ferments (spoils) in the stomach before it can be digested it causes poisonous gases that are bound to affect the nervous system. If the bowels are constipated, clogged up with foul waste matter soon absorbed into the blood there is but one answer—Shillito's. It is just the same as if one had taken poison to have the stomach and bowels pouring foul poison from spoiled fermenting food into the blood.
 Adolphus Shillito, of Clarkburg, W. Va., said that he got into such an awful nervous condition due to stomach and bowel disorders that he had St. Vitus' Dance. Two bottles of Nerv-Vit-Dance improved his condition wonderfully and made him feel like a new man. His appetite came back, and his food was properly digested. His bowels were regulated and there was no more trouble.
 You can get Nerv-Vit-Dance at almost any drug store at one dollar a bottle. It is always on sale at the Fisher & Streich drug store in this city and every druggist is authorized to give back your money if the first bottle does not show encouraging results. It is especially fine for delicate women and sickly children.—Advertisement.

Burling conducts a large music store in the southern city.
 Burling is an old Portsmouth boy.

First time I met him, I said:— "There's some one to tie to"

Smith was telling how real quality needed no second introduction.

And that's the testimony so many people have given about Grape-Nuts. They didn't have to learn to like it.

Wheat and malted barley, skilfully blended, and slowly baked for 20 hours, in our great, sanitary food factories, are developed into a natural sweetness, richness and crispness that make an immediate appeal to the taste. The exceptional nourishment which Nature places in these best of the food grains is perfected for complete and ready digestion and assimilation.

Grape-Nuts builds for health and accomplishment.

A delightful breakfast or luncheon cereal, with cream or milk (ready to eat from the package); delicious when made into a pudding for dinner.

Ask your grocer to send you, or your waiter to serve you, this splendid food today.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

My dear Miss Wise—I am a school boy 17 years of age. I am 5 feet, 10 inches in height and weigh 100 lbs. Please give me some information as to how I can get into the movies as I am very much interested and give me your best advice about it.

ROUGH BILL.
You can get into the movies any time if you buy a ticket.

Miss Wise—Is it proper for a husband to serve a chair to a lady caller, before he serves to his wife, when the wife is able to walk?

A Poor Disgraced Husband.
If you are in your own home, neither of you should sit down until your guests have been seated. If out in public your wife comes first, "always."

Jackson, Ohio, Feb. 20—Miss Dolly Wise—We would like to know approximately how many barrels of 50 gallons each it would take to hold the water in the Atlantic Ocean.

R. and M.
If you will measure the water I will tell you how many barrels it will take to hold it. The Atlantic ocean contains 34,300,400 square miles. Now get busy with your pencil.

Dear Dolly—Where could I get some paper suitcases and paper bowls?

H. O. C.
You can probably get them in the housefurnishing department of the local stores. If they do not keep them they will give you the name and address of a firm that makes them.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a school boy and go to school every day. At my school is a girl whom I adore. She sings and speaks to me sometimes on the street. Dolly how can I win her for good?

AN ADMIRER.
I don't think you could win an irresponsible flirt if you look every chance but up. Even if you did win her away from you.

Dear Dolly—My husband and I are going to Columbus to consult a specialist and we will be there a few days and will stay at the hotel. Dolly does it cost very much to stay at the hotel, and would it be all right for us to stay there? We are young and do not know much about traveling. Please answer at once.

MRS. M.
There are several first class hotels in Columbus, and you and your husband would be perfectly safe at either of them. The Lindsley, The Chittenden and the Southern are quite popular. The Chittenden is not far from Union Station, and the Lindsley is located on Broad and High, which is the center of the business district and right near the State House. The price depends upon the kind of a room you get. If I were you I would just get a room at the hotel and take my meals at the restaurant, or at the lunch rooms in the various department stores.

Dear Dolly—I want to know if one can have their name and Portsmouth, Ohio, put on their letters and go to the post office and get their mail, or do they have to rent a box? In the country you just go to the postoffice and ask for your mail and I want to know if you do the same thing in town.

COUNTRY GREENHORN.
If you have no permanent address you can have your mail addressed General Delivery, and go to the post office and get it without renting a box, but if you have a street address the mail carrier will deliver your mail to your door.

Dear Dolly—Do you think as service men will ever get our bonus and when? Dolly, I read something in the paper about it. If you don't understand what I mean, tell what you think about it anyway.

A READER.
I understand about the bonus, but I don't think you know much about it or you would not be asking this question. The bonus is now being paid to Ohio soldiers who served in the late war. If you have not sent in your application, would advise you to do so at once. Since you did not make application at the local headquarters of the American Legion, some time ago, you will have to send your application direct to state headquarters in Columbus. Address your letter to Robert R. Roberts, Compensation Director, State House, Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I would like for you to tell me a good way to make dumplings. My husband wants me to make all he can eat.

JAMES READER.
If you make them like this you will eat until you "disturbate," maybe.

Drop Dumplings.—One egg, one-half cup sweet milk, two level teaspoons of baking powder and enough flour to thicken. Drop from spoon and cook fifteen or twenty minutes.

Dear Dolly—What do you think of a man who wears his corduroy pants to see his girl? I have a nice beau and I love him, but every time he comes to see me he has on "them horrid pants." Now Dolly, don't you think he should dress up? If not should I tell him to dress up? I hate corduroy pants, even on working men.

SHOOTER.
Maybe he hasn't got any dress-up suit, or maybe he is too tired or too lazy to dress up. You might tell him that you did not like corduroy and maybe he would wear his jeans or striped trousers.

SOCIETY

Washington's Birthday, which was universally celebrated with its many parties, luncheons, etc., was also the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Geo. L. Law, of 837 Second street, daughter of Miss Julia Law, who has been ill for several weeks, is still confined to her bed, none present entered into the full enjoyment of the occasion more heartily than she. Her husband was transformed into a veritable flower of beautiful variegated spring blossoms—hyacinths, narcissus, tulips, sweetpeas, carnations, and other lovely blooming plants and cut flowers, the gifts of very dear friends. A large birthday cake, with the requisite number of gleaming candles, in rosebud holders, was the center of attraction, and a delicious ice course was daintily served by Miss Law and Mrs. Harry Denton to the following: Mrs. and Mrs. W. O. Russell and daughter, Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denton and daughter, Alice Isabel, Mrs. A. A. Palmer, Misses Alice and Sallie Emmert and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Law, and Miss Julia Law.

The Magnolia Degree Team and invited guests will enjoy a dance Friday evening at the K. G. of P. hall, Fourth and Washington streets. Dancing will be from nine until twelve. The committee in charge of arrangements include O. E. Burcham, John E. Kah and William Burr.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Doherty, who have been very ill at their home in Oak Hill, are improving. They are former residents of this city.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Instantly he forgot that he and Nancy were on an errand for the Fairy Queen.

NICK looked after Nancy, whom the gypsy woman was leading into the cave. Then he looked at the great chocolate cake that had been set out to cool.

Some way he felt that things were going all wrong.

Just then something dropped out of his pocket. It was the note the Magician Mushroom had left in the orchard.

"I'd better not lose that," thought Nick, and he stopped to pick it up.

But to and behold, the writing had changed from blue to red! He opened it and read: "Don't go into the cave. The gypsy woman is Twelve Toes the Sorcerer."

"Nancy," he screamed. "Come back. Don't go in there. Come back and we'll start on our journey over the Seven Mountains."

But Nancy didn't hear. Only the gypsy woman turned and looked at him, a queer crooked smile.

No wonder the little girl didn't hear, for the cloth the woman had given her to wipe up the spilled being was the Cloth of Dreams. Whoever held it forgot everything and believed whatever he was told.

"Nancy, Nancy!" Nick kept calling, running after his sister. He intended to rescue her if he could before it was too late.

"Come, come, little master," said the gypsy woman sweetly, stopping suddenly and holding out her hand. "The more the merrier. We'll have quite a little party."

Before he knew what was happening, she had taken Nick's hand and placed his other end of the cloth in it that Nancy held. The Cloth of Dreams, you know, my dears, and that was the end of poor Nick, or his memory. Instantly he forgot that he and Nancy were on an errand for the Fairy Queen. Forgotten were the Diddys, the Korsknoits and the lost record of Longhead the Wiseman.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Diener, 235 Front street, was the scene of a merry gathering last evening in celebration of the first birthday anniversary of their son, David, and the eighth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Roberta Diener.

The rooms were decorated in patriotic colors, in keeping with George Washington's birthday, and the evening was spent in games, music and social chat. Later the guests were invited into the dining room, where they were served with ice cream and cake. Two large birthday cakes graced the table, one bearing eight red candles, the other one candle. The favors were little hatchets and cherries, and covers were laid for Mildred Doll, Lois Diener, Frances Schaefer, Charlotte Young, Kathryn Schaefer, Ethel Wear, Bernadine Burke, Marie Burke, Marie Kennard, Gladys Merston, Florence Swearingen, Lucille Lake, Myrtle Lake, Alma Dreaman, Leona Brown, Gladys Beringer, Gladys Moler, Doris Ferguson, Genevieve McClain, Kathryn Evans, Gladys McGraw, Mary Kathryn Stamm, Marguerite Goetz, Wilhelmina Smith, Elizabeth Lehman, Roberta Diener, Billie Smith, Edw. Evans, Joseph List, Andrew J. Dymally, Eugene Diener, Brother Kennard, Lee Dreaman, Howard Dreaman, Robert Stamm, Jack Lake, Thomas Diener, Carl Diener and David Diener; Mrs. Pearl Bassler, Mrs. Joseph Ray, Mrs. Hoyt Smith, Mrs. Margaret Last, Miss Alton Diener, Miss Nan Sachs and Miss Diener Diener. The two honor guests received many useful and beautiful presents.

Miss Flora Hewitt, who is a patient at the King's Daughters Hospital in Ashland, Ky., is improving. She has been in Ashland for several weeks.

The home of Mrs. H. G. Richards of Siliam, Ky., was the scene of a very enjoyable affair Friday night, February 17, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Richards was busily engaged with her household duties when she heard a rap at the door, and upon answering the summons she found the ladies of the neighborhood gathered there, on being invited to their birthday party.

"Don't you know this is your birthday?" Each presented Mrs. Richards with a token of remembrance. Those including the party were Mrs. Mattie Flanagan and daughter, Thelma; Mrs. Sigsbee Bush and daughters, Beulah and Helen; Mrs. Mary Bush and son, Carroll; Mrs. S. S. Garvey and daughter, Ruth; Mrs. R. O. Dameron, Mrs. Jennie Bush, Mrs. Lytle Morgan, Misses Gladys Preston and Anna Lawson; Messrs. Paul Dameron and Clifford Bush. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and music, the girls making delicious fudge for the crowd. Leaving at a late hour all wished Mrs. Richards many happy returns of the day.

The Juniors of the First Baptist church will meet in the church at four o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. James Dawson will make a talk in which she will tell of her recent trip to Canada. All children are invited to attend.

Several members of the high school faculty composed a party that took advantage of the delightful weather Wednesday to take a hike and enjoy an outing in the country. The party tramped to a point on the banks of the Little Scioto near the Narrows and cooked their dinners over a camp fire. The party was composed of Prof. H. H. Eyles, E. E. Seig, F. B. McComb, A. K. Wheeler, W. E. Musle, Lester Goswell and E. E. Lloyd.

Henry Snyder of 1029 Fifteenth street left this morning for Indianapolis, Ind., being called there by the death of his mother, Mrs. W. V. Snyder, who passed away yesterday following an illness with paralysis.

17th Anniversary of ROTARY'S BIRTH

Origin of Rotary

Seventeen years ago, Paul P. Harris, an attorney in the City of Chicago, was tormented with an unmitigated obsession to achieve something of benefit to humanity. The lonesomeness of the large city, the dull routine of business, and the earnest desire to enlarge his circle of acquaintances spurred him into decisive action. He invited three friends to his office—a coal dealer, a mining operator, and a merchant tailor—to whom he deliberately elucidated his idea of forming a club, a unique club, that would be wholly different from any other existing organization; a club that would promulgate the spirit of service, make business men better business men, develop a wide acquaintanceship, and afford its members an opportunity to serve society.

This meeting occurred on February 23, 1905, and was the actual arrival of baby Rotary into a world that received her with open arms. Members consisted of one man from each business or profession, who met in rotation at their places of business to discuss various questions that might arise from time to time, and to offer suggestions concerning the welfare of the community. In order to strengthen fellowship, it was unanimously agreed that each member should call the other by his first name or by his nickname.

Membership in the Chicago Rotary Club increased very rapidly and just three years after its inception, the second Rotary Club was organized in San Francisco. The worthy movement spread along the Pacific Coast, crossed the continent, and crept north and south on the Atlantic Coast. At the close of the year 1910, sixteen clubs had been organized in the United States.

The initial Convention of Rotary Clubs was held in Chicago in 1910. The "National Association" was formed at this Convention. But, two years later, at the Duluth Convention in 1912, Rotary evolved from a national organization to an international organization.

Rotary has grown more rapidly since 1912 than during the first seven years. Today there are more than one thousand Rotary Clubs in the world with approximately eighty thousand members. Although the greater number are in the United States, the land of its birth, there are now Rotary Clubs in Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Great Britain, Spain, France, Ireland, Cuba, South America, South Africa, the Republic of Panama, Japan, China, India, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippine Islands and many other countries. Inquiries have been received from Holland, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, the Falkland Islands and British East Africa, which clearly manifest the far-reaching fame of Rotary.

"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

Rotary Achievements

WHATEVER achievement marks the history of the past seventeen years of Rotary activity is due entirely to, and its ultimate worth is marked by, the manner in which each individual club has lived up to the creed that "HE PROFITS MOST WHO SERVES BEST."

The real achievement of Rotary lies in the way this spirit of service is reflected in the community in which a club has been established. Its activities are varied and numerous and are usually confined to those things which no other organization is formed to accomplish, although some of its greatest achievements, and necessarily its least known activities, have been in promoting work for and with other organizations along the lines which these other organizations are given public recognition of accomplishment. Thus during the great war, Rotarians, nominated by International Headquarters or the local club, at the request of government departments or war work organizations like the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., etc., formed the nucleus groups about which were built many most active and efficient local organizations.

Taking the achievements of all Rotary Clubs in the eastern and western hemispheres, they touch every phase of community life.

Twenty-five thousand boys and girls who had quit school were influenced to return last September through the activity of 114 Rotary Clubs in the "back-to-school" movement which began with the Blackwell, Oklahoma, Rotary Club three years ago. That is just one of the phases of what is termed Boys Work—one of the several special agencies through which practically every club in the international organization has been active.

The principal branches of Boys Work, in addition to the Boy Scout Movement, are: Providing or organizing the community to provide boys' camps, playgrounds and swimming pools; providing surgical treatment for crippled children; giving boys vocational counsel; big brothering underprivileged and delinquent boys; establishing dental clinics, etc.

Literally millions of dollars have been expended in boys work activities initiated or pushed to a successful issue by Rotary Clubs and by Rotary Clubs in association with other organizations. For instance, in Buffalo, New York, the sum of $500,000 was raised for a high school stadium; in Minneapolis a transportation line for crippled children was established so these children could go to school and the Minnesota legislature acknowledged Rotary as the author and vigorous proponent of its legislation providing for adequate schools for such children. These are but two specific instances of thousands of actual undertakings. Even an approximation of the amount of money involved would be a wild guess, but the monetary value pales to insignificance in comparison with the community service rendered in the development of these activities.

But Boys Work, as stated before, is only one of the many achievements. Second to none in Rotary activities comes community service. Rotary Clubs in many cities have been instrumental in arousing a civic pride and consciousness that has resulted in the preparation and adoption of city-beautiful plans; erection of club houses for soldiers and community settlement houses; the providing of night schools for aliens, and their instruction in the fundamentals of Americanism. Better public highways, "get-together" meetings of farmers and business men, community singing, employment of visiting nurses, safety-first campaigns; in fact, a complete list of the various activities of Rotary Clubs would include nearly every phase of man's endeavor toward making his city, his state, and his country a better place in which to live.

There are innumerable instances where Rotary Clubs have been called upon for service in times of great stress. Probably the most striking example was at the time of the influenza epidemic in the United States and Canada, when many clubs were suddenly called upon to make surveys of hospital facilities, organize available local resources for fighting the epidemic, and securing nurses from less-afflicted communities.

Governing Body of Rotary

The International Association of Rotary Clubs, embracing more than one thousand individual Rotary Clubs, functions through a Board of Directors which is elected each year at the annual Convention. The Directors of the Association are a president, three vice-presidents, and a fifth member who is the outgoing president and who remains as one of the Directors for a year after the expiration of his term as president.

The headquarters or central office of the International Association is located in Chicago, and departments are organized here for rendering efficient and individual service to all Rotary Clubs. Constant contact is maintained with district governors and committees as well as with each individual Rotary Club through its officials.

"The Rotarian," a large magazine devoted to Rotary, is published every month. Verbatim proceedings of the International Convention are printed each year in book form. The fact that more than one million copies of reports, bulletins and publications are printed annually will suggest a fair idea of the enormous amount of work handled at the central office of the Association.

Objects of Rotary

To encourage and foster:

High ethical standards in business and professions.

The ideal of SERVICE as the basis of all worthy enterprise.

The active interest of every Rotarian in the civic, commercial, social and moral welfare of his community.

The development of a broad acquaintanceship as an opportunity for service as well as an aid to success.

The interchange of ideas and of business methods as a means of increasing the efficiency and usefulness of Rotarians.

The recognition of the worthiness of all legitimate occupations and the dignifying of the occupation of each Rotarian as affording him an opportunity to serve society.

ERSKINE DALE PIONEER

by JOHN FOX JR.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Erskine Dale, captured in infancy by the Indians, is adopted by the chief Kahlo and reared as an Indian under the name of White Arrow. He is told that his mother, captured with him, was killed.

Maltreated by an Indian brave, Erskine flees to a settler's stockade in Kentucky and is recognized by his mortally wounded father. The boy goes to Red Oaks, the great Dale plantation on the James River, now occupied by Colonel Dale, younger brother of Erskine's father. The boy is kindly received by his cousins Barbara and Harry. Erskine flees to the wilderness and joins Red Oaks, legally his, to Barbara, after threatening to kill Dane Grey, with whom he has quarreled in jealousy over the girl. He is met by Shawnee Indians who persuade him to visit his foster-father, the old chief Kahlo. In the Indian camp he finds a white woman condemned to death. Her beautiful half-breed daughter, Early Morn, is loved by Erskine's enemy, Black Wolf.

Erskine on his return from a war council where he aided with the Americans after all the tribe had agreed to throw their fighting forces with the British was taken captive by Black Wolf and his followers and held as a spy and traitor while plans were made to burn him at the stake but not until Erskine had succeeded in saving the condemned woman.

Erskine, freed by Early Morn as Black Wolf slept in drunken stupor, escaped to stockade. Later Erskine goes to Red Oaks, where he finds Barbara and Dane Grey together. Following the telling of his experiences Erskine finds himself free to face with Dane Grey.

Erskine and Grey engage in a duel with rapier. Barbara discovers they have gone to duel and notifies Colonel Dale who rushes to the scene in time to prevent any bloodshed. Barbara rushes up a few minutes later and appears relieved to find Grey unhurt. Erskine and Barbara meeting later, the former says he supposes he will always feel guilty of making her unhappy.

Barbara tells Erskine she trusts him, and makes him promise to return to her when she bids, then kisses him, leaving him in a turmoil of emotions. On returning to the Indian vil-

Erskine is proclaimed a hero, urged to marry Early Morn, is attacked by Black Wolf and has several thrilling experiences, climaxed by a rush of the girl to the high cliff over the river.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Catch her!" cried the mother. "Quick!" Erskine fled after her, overtook her with his hands upraised for the plunge on the very edge of the cliff, and half carried her, struggling and sobbing, back to the tent. Within the girl dropped in a weeping heap, and with her face covered, and the woman turned to Erskine agonized.

"I told her," she whispered, "and she was going to kill herself. You are my son."

Still sleepless at following dawn, the boy rode firefly into the woods. At sunset he came in, gaunt with brooding and hunger. His mother, watching from her wigwam, understood and grew fearful. Quickly she called him and he rose and went to her tent. She was smiling.

"I have decided," he said, "You and she must leave here and go with me."

His mother pretended much displeasure. "She will not leave, and I will not leave her"—her lips trembled and she would have gone long ago but—

"I understand," interrupted Erskine, "but you will go now with your son."

The poor woman had to scowl. "No, and you must not tell them. They will never let me go, and they will use me to keep you here. You must go at once. Some day—"

She turned abruptly and went into her tent. Erskine wheeled and went to old Kahlo.

"I am a soldier and must obey the big chief's commands, as must you."

"I shall live," said the old man wearily, "until you come again."

Erskine nodded and went for his horse. Black Wolf watched him with malignant satisfaction, but said nothing—nor did Crooked Lightning. Erskine turned once as he rode away. His mother was standing outside her wigwam. Mournfully she waved her hand. Behind her, and within the tent he could see Early Morn with both hands at her breast.

The war was coming into Virginia at last. Virginia falling would thrust a great wedge through the center of the Confederacy, feel the British armies and end the fight. Even the great Washington was near despair, and

In foreign help his sole hope lay. Already the traitor, Arnold, had taken Richmond, burned warehouses, and returned, but little harassed, to Portsmouth.

Cornwallis was coming on. Tarleton's white rangers were bedeviling the land, and it was at this time that Erskine Dale once more rode firefly to the river James.

The boy had been two years in the wilds. When he left the Shawnee camp winter was setting in, that terrible winter of '70—of deep snow and hunger and cold. When he reached Kaskaskia, Captain Clark had gone to Kentucky, and Erskine found bad news. Hamilton and Hay had taken Vincennes. There Captain Helm's Crookes, as soon as they saw the redcoats, slipped away from him to surrender their arms to the British, and thus deserted by all he and the two or three Americans with him had to give up the fort.

The two years in the wilderness had left their mark on Erskine. He was tall, lean, swarthy, gaunt, and yet he was not all wilderness, for his born inheritance as gentleman had been more than emphasized by his association with Clark and certain Creek officers in the North-west, who had impressed his French and crafted one and wish of his life since his last visit to the James—they had taught him to fence.

His mother he had not seen again but he had learned that she was alive and not yet blind. Of Early Morn he had heard nothing at all.

Once a traveler had brought word of Dane Grey. Grey was in Philadelphia and prominent in the gay doings of that city.

After the battle of Point, Erskine put forth for old Jerome Sanders' fort. He found the hard days of want over. There was not only corn in plenty but wheat, potatoes, pumpkins, turnips, melons.

Honor Sanders and Polly Conrad had married, but when Erskine laid Lydia Noe good-by she told him to carry her love to Dave Yandell.

There were many, many travelers on the Wilderness Road now, and Colonel Dale's prophecy was coming true. The soldiers were pouring in and the long long trail was now no lonesome way.

At Williamsburg Erskine learned many things. Colonel Dale, now a general, was still with Washington and Harry was with him. Hugh was with the Virginia militia and Dave with Lafayette.

Tarleton's legion of rangers in their white uniforms were scouring Virginia as they had scoured the Carolinas. Through the James River country they had gone with fire and sword.

Barbara's mother was dead. Her neighbors had moved to safety but Barbara, he heard, still lived with old Mammy and Ephraim at Red Oaks, unless that, too, had been recently put to the torch. Where, then, would he find her?

XX.

DOWN the river Erskine rode with a sad heart. At the place where he had fought with Grey he pulled firefly to a sudden halt. There was the boundary of Red Oaks and there started a desolation that ran as far as his eye could reach.

Red Oaks had not been spared, and he put firefly to a fast gallop. Soon over a distant clump of trees he could see the chimneys of Barbara's home—his home, he thought helplessly—and perhaps those chimneys were all that was left.

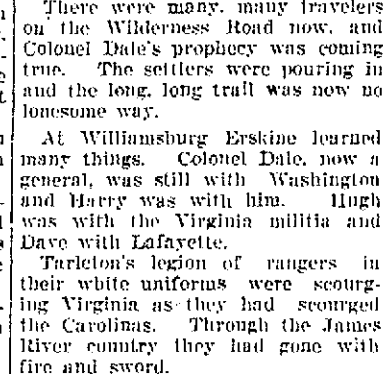

And then he saw the roof and upper windows and he pulled firefly in again, with overwhelming relief, and wondered at the miracle.

Again he started and pulled in when he caught sight of three horses hitched near the stables. Turning quickly from the road, he hid firefly in the underbrush. He slipped along the path and lay down where, unseen, he could peer through the closely matted hedge.

A white uniform issued from the great hall door and another and another—and after them Barbara smiling.

The boy's blood ran hot—smiling at her enemies.

Two officers bowed, Barbara cour-

THE THIRD STAYED BEHIND, BOWED OVER HER HAND AND KISSED IT.

"Marse Erskine!" he gasped. It was Ephraim, the boy who had led Barbara's white ponies out long, long ago. "Whar yo' boss? Gawd, I've s'ntly glad to see yuh." Erskine pointed to an oak.

rested, and they wheeled on their heels and descended the steps.

The third stayed behind a moment, bowed over her hand and kissed it. The watcher's blood turned then to liquid fire.

Great God, at what price was that noble old house left standing? They were coming now. The boy had his pistols out, primed and cocked. He was rising to his knees, just about to leap to his feet and out into the road, when he fell back into a startled paralysis, inactive heap.

Glimpsed through an opening in the bushes, the leading trooper in the uniform of Tarleton's legion was Dane Grey, and Erskine's brain had worked quicker than his angry heart.

This was a mystery that must be solved before his ideals spoke. He rose crouching as the troopers rode away. A startled gasp behind him made him wheel, pistol once more in hand to find a negro.

Twenty-four Years Ago

Charles Windel, Jr., salesman for B. Augustin, was all smiles and the cause was the arrival of a fine baby boy at his home.

John Feist, dropped dead at the home of his father, John Feist, prominent farmer of Pinkerman, Bloom township. He was 22 years old and death was caused by heart trouble.

Word was received here of the death in Dayton of James A. Martin, an old Portsmouth boy. He was about 50 years old and was cashier of the Dayton National Bank at the time of his death.

Miss Julia Hall entertained informally for the pleasure of her guests, Miss Mary Norton, of Riverside, Cal., and it was a delightful little party the hours being pleasantly spent at cards.

A party of Scioto county men, Robert Beatty, of near Sciotoville, and John Wiehle, Sam Pyles and others of Harrison township, left the city, bound for a point in Lewis county, Ky., back of Vaucuburg, to hunt for a fortune buried in the hills centuries before, it was claimed. The party went forth fully equipped with tools for digging.

Miss Belle Jones went to Cincinnati to accept a position as milliner in a leading Cincinnati store.

The negro's eyes shifted. "She's well."

"Wasn't one of those soldiers who just rode away Mr. Dane Grey?"

The negro hesitated.

"Yessah."

"Go tell Miss Barbara I'm here and then feed my horse."

Ephraim went swiftly and Erskine followed to the kitchen door, where Barbara's faithful old Mammy was waiting with a smile of welcome.

"I tol' Miss Barbara, sah. She's waitin' fer yuh in de hall."

Barbara, standing in the hall doorway, looked his step.

"Erskine," she cried softly, and she came to meet him with both hands outstretched, and raised her lovely face to be kissed. "What are you doing here?"

"I am on my way to join General Lafayette."

"But you will be captured. It is dangerous. The country is full of British soldiers."

"So I know," Erskine said dryly.

"When did you get here?"

"Twenty minutes ago. I would not have been welcomed here, I waited in the hedge. I saw you had company."

"Did you see them?" she faltered.

"I even recognized one of them," Barbara sank into a chair, her elbow on an arm, her chin in her hand, her face turned, her eyes looking outward. She said nothing, but the two of her slipper began to tap the floor gently.

"Barbara," Erskine said with some sternness, "what does all this mean? Why did they spare the house?"

"Dane Grey saved our home."

"How did he get in communication with Tarleton when he was an officer in the American army?" The girl would not answer.

"He fought once under Benedict Arnold—perhaps he is fighting with him now."

"No," she cried hotly.

"She did not let him in to utter the word."

"Why Mr. Grey is in British uniform is his secret—not mine."

"And why he is here is yours."

"Exactly," she flamed. "You are a soldier. Learn what you want to know from him. You are my cousin, but you are going beyond the rights of blood. I won't stand it—I won't stand it—now anybody."

"I don't understand you, Barbara. That last time it was Grey, you—"

She Was Truly Temperate

A woman who has just died at the age of 107 said recently that she owed her long life to temperance. It is quite evident, therefore, that she was not one of those intemperate prohibition fanatics. They worry themselves to death early over the conduct of other people.—New York Telegraph.

The WRONG FACE

by ISABEL OSTRANDER

"...directly beside the window and without warning a face appeared within a few inches of her own.

"It was a white drawn face with disheveled hair and with eyes which stared wildly into hers for a moment while she held her breath in surprise and terror."

This was what terrified beautiful Fay Tudor as she sat alone in the library on the night of her return from France.

Then swiftly flowed the current of mystery and crime.

Whose was the wrong face? Who fatally gassed innocent Laura Tudor on her betrothal night with lethal monoxide? How did Fay, sleeping in the same room, escape? What part did the gas mask play? Had Fay's war-shattered nerves made her the number one of her country?

She didn't know!

A plot of startling originality, yet logically and convincingly developed into a surprising denouement, makes "The Wrong Face" a brilliant addition to the novels of America's greatest detective story writer.

Bloodhound Follows Trail And May Clear Up Mystery Of Fires

Owen Fitch and Warren Weeks took the bloodhound owned by Lawrence Fitch of New Boston, back of Wakefield in Pike county Wednesday in an effort to trail the person or persons suspected of setting fire to the Half-hill home destroyed Tuesday night. Several other mysterious fires had occurred in that neighborhood in a few days.

The young men and the dog arrived on the scene about nine o'clock Wednesday morning and spent the greater part of the day in the community visited by the frequent fires.

Although a number of persons had tramped about the ruins of the destroyed home the bloodhound picked up a trail and followed it to the home of a man about four miles from the fire, the young men claim.

According to Sheriff Chambers of Waverly, the man had been suspected and he already had a warrant filled out for him. The man's wife answered the officers when they appeared and claimed her husband left early in the morning.

Fitch and Weeks took the dog to the scene of a fire that occurred the night previous and the dog picked up a trail and followed it for some distance but it did not lead the officers to any clue.

Waverly, O., February 23.—Several mysterious fires near Shively, Scioto Township, Pike County, reported in Sheriff McClay and deputies being called there Wednesday in an attempt to trace their origin. Monday night about 7:00 o'clock the first fire occurred, a corn crib belonging to John McDaniels, burning.

The following night about the same hour, McDaniels' chicken coop burned down.

About 12 o'clock the same night a log house on the farm of John Hatfield burned down. It was unoccupied.

Sheriff McClay with deputies, Ernest Dowdle and Harry Robinson, started out early Wednesday morning, but were delayed at Wakefield for several hours waiting the arrival of bloodhounds from New Boston. As it was noon time before the dogs could be put on the trail, they were unable to follow it.

One suspect was arrested and brought to Waverly Wednesday afternoon. He gave the name of Louis Dunham, who lives in the vicinity of Shively. He was brought before Squire Brown and released under bond, Louis Keager being his bondsman. No insurance was carried on the building.

Clash On College Education

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Five hundred members of various bar associations of the country were to take up at the opening meeting today of a conference of bar associations the question of the advisability of admitting to the bar those who fail to have in addition to their regular law school training, a college course of at least two years. A course suggested recently by the American Bar Association. A clash of opinion on the subject was forecast when the meeting was called to order by Judge Clarence N. Goodwin, of Chicago.

Elihu Root was on the program for the opening address, and in the afternoon Chief Justice Taft was scheduled to preside and address the delegates on higher education as it should be applied to the legal profession. Professor Samuel Williston, of the Harvard law school, and President James R. Angell, of Yale University, were also on the program for addresses on economic conditions and educational opportunities in the United States which enforces "the ambitious hog of small means to obtain a college training."

Portsmouth People Are The Best Folks On Earth!

The loyal way the people of the Peerless City have stood by us during our misfortune as the result of the disastrous fire that practically destroyed our mill, is one thing that makes life worth living. While we have done our best to take care of patrons, and have succeeded fairly well, patrons have been more than lenient and wished us well through the many disadvantages we encountered. And we thank them most heartily. We also wish to express our appreciation to those who have encouraged us—who have not only expressed their sympathies but offered aid of all kind. It makes one rejoice that they live in a place where folks are staunch and true.

While the result of the fire is apparent on every hand, we are now in a position to take care of all orders promptly and efficiently. Anything in our line is at your disposal. We are planning on a bigger and better mill and hope to give Portsmouth one to which all citizens can point to with pride.

Wishing all the best of everything, we are

Brokerage Firm In Hands Of Receiver

NEW YORK, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Liabilities of the brokerage firm of Kardos and Burke, which last night went into the hands of a receiver, were variously estimated here today at from $700,000 to $1,500,000. John Burke, former treasurer of the United States, whose signature appeared on bank notes issued from early in 1913 until his resignation a little more than a year ago, declared today he lost everything in the collapse of the business. Bankers who had been associated with him in business were quoted as asserting their belief that he had been an "innocent dupe" in the development of the amazing situation revealed by the failure.

Matters relating to the firm's affairs were to be discussed at the office of the attorney for Robert P. Stephenson, receiver here today. Legal actions against a number of firms that are members of the New York stock exchange, it was intimated, be the sequel of the fall of the house of Kardos and Burke. It was indicated that if these suits were successful, the firm might pay its creditors dollar for dollar.

Satisfied Over Decision Of Ard Ehris

DUBLIN, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—General satisfaction seems to be felt in southern Ireland over yesterday's surprise decision of the Ard Ehris for a three months adjournment, at the end of which the people will be asked to vote on a constitution as well as on the Anglo-Irish treaty.

The opinion is not unanimous, however, as many heartily endorse the contention's gratification at the preservation of the Sinn Fein's unity, but some staunch supporters of the treaty are disappointed and inclined to agree with John McEneaney's declared opinion that "the agreement was clearly a republic victory."

One question much discussed in some quarters is what is going to happen to the treaty bill now before the imperial parliament, which it is contended is shattered to a great extent by the Ard Ehris' decision.

WHY GROW FAT? KERKER'S REMEDY KNOCKS ASTHMA

Thousands of women who have had a trim, stylish figure all their lives, begin to take on weight in early middle life. And because they have heard of "Fat and Forty" and because foolish starvation diets, ridiculous exercises and certain medicines only seem to make their condition worse, they give up all hope and say, "Oh, well, I rather be fat, anyway."

But that shows—Fat that comes and stays is not only unbecoming, but may prove dangerous, a decided disadvantage to your necessary activity and pleasures. So why stay that way?

No special exercises or diet! No dangerous or sickening medicines. Just a cooling, sparking, aperient pleasure to take—but quickly and noticeably effective.

Cambridge, Ohio—"When my baby was six months old I had gone down in health with inward weakness so that I could not get around to do my housework or care for my baby. I was just about 'down and out' when I started to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The first bottle proved to me that I was taking the right medicine and six bottles helped me to get around to do my work as easily as before my illness. Favorite Prescription really did do wonders for me and I am glad to recommend it at every opportunity."

Memorial For Ex-President John Q. Adams

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Representatives of historical, patriotic and art societies today honored the memory of John Quincy Adams by holding memorial services on the spot, now marked by a bronze plate, where the great statesman who became the sixth president of the United States, fell fatally stricken in the capital. Senator Caraway, of Arkansas, delivered an eulogy, describing the last scene of the statesman's life which was enacted while in his seat in congress. Senator Caraway told how Adams, under a sudden stroke, sank down in his seat when the speaker of the house was about to begin a speech, and explained that the last words uttered by Adams were:
"Thank the members of the house. This is the last of earth. I am content."

MENACE TO LIFE

Cold Germs Multiply by the Millions—To Fortify and Strengthen the Physical Resistance Is Very Important

The common everyday cold is now regarded by medical authorities as a deadly menace to health and life. Any person contracting a cold and allowing it to drag its flitting with death. Every sensible person should, upon the first sign of any hot flash, followed by a chill, or any tightness in the chest, sore throat or other cold symptoms, consult a physician at once.
One of the most effective home treatments and which is today used by millions of people is to take a steaming hot cupful of Bulgarian Blood Tea which can be had at any drug store. This hot medicinal tea assists nature to purify and strengthen the weak blood, stimulate the inactive kidneys and cast the stagnant poisons from the bowels and intestinal tract. The rich juices brewed from the plants, roots, barks, leaves and flowers that compose Bulgarian Blood Tea permeate the whole system and are wonderfully healthful.—Advertisement.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY NEXT SUNDAY

Plans are completed for making "Sunday School Day" next Sunday a great success over our city and the adjoining towns.

Does the challenge to have a part in the great fellowship of service to childhood and youth find a response in your heart?
This is the day of large vision when we need to join hands with all our brothers of the faith to serve the Father's Kingdom. Through the Sunday School Associations, County State and International, we have our largest opportunity for service.
Next Sunday there will be seven Sunday School specialists to speak in practically every church, with a strong message.
The following schedule is arranged for the various churches:
J. M. Small of Wilmington, O., Cedar street-Christian Sunday school, 10 a. m. at the United Brethren church in the evening.
L. B. Edgar of Columbus, Kendall Avenue Baptist Sunday School, Trinity, M. E. at the morning preaching hour and at the United Brethren church in the evening.

Breakdown Of Controls Regulating Altitude Of Craft Caused Disaster

NORFOLK, VA., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Members of the army investigating board continued today their efforts to determine, if possible, the definite and primary cause of the disaster which overtook the giant army dirigible, Roma over the army base here Tuesday, in which 34 of her passengers and crew met death and the world's largest semi-rigid aircraft was demolished.

Controls Broke Down

That the fatal crash to earth of the great airship followed a breakdown of the controls regulating the altitude of the craft appeared today to have been definitely established in the testimony thus far given. Belief that this was the general cause of the disaster was expressed by Major General Patrick, head of the army air service, in a statement issued yesterday on the basis of the initial testimony, and there had been no further official word today on the result of the investigation thus far.

Probe Behind Closed Doors

The inquiry is proceeding behind closed doors and no details were known of the testimony given by the survivors as well as eye-witnesses of the disaster, experts and others. Of the eight injured in the accident, all were said to be making good progress toward recovery today with the exception of Charles Dworack, superintendent of construction at McCook field, Dayton, Ohio, who was still reported to be in a critical condition at the public hospital. The condition of five of the injured had permitted them to be removed from the hospital to Langley field.

To Honor Dead
Meanwhile, at Newport News where the dead were taken, relatives and friends continued to arrive today to identify the bodies and make arrangements to have them removed to their homes for burial. Officers at Langley field had informed city officials there that arrangements probably would be completed today to hold funeral services tomorrow for all of the 34 dead at the undertaking establishment in Newport News to which they have been brought. Officials of that city, Norfolk and Hampton Roads and the several American Legion posts have arranged to pay tribute to the dead at the service and during the quarter hour at noon there will be a complete suspension of business on the Virginia peninsula.

Untrained And Incompetent Attorneys Blamed For Poor Showing Of Some Cases In Court

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Equally before the law is impossible so long as the rich and powerful are represented in court by highly educated lawyers, while a large part of the poor and ignorant are represented by untrained and incompetent men. Judge Clarence N. Goodwin, of Chicago, declared in his opening address today as chairman of the conference of bar associations here. Until such a condition is corrected, he said, there will be little justice in the courts.
"During my years as a trial judge," the speaker said, "I was frequently distressed by the fact that one side or the other in the case before me was so incompetently represented by counsel, or represented by such ignorant counsel that, owing to the learning and skill of the attorneys on the other side, it seemed impossible to get the case properly before the court or keep error out of the records."

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Accumulation of buying orders over the holiday gave momentum to the further advance of prices at the opening of today's stock market. Foreign oils, especially Royal Dutch, Shell Trading, and General Asphalt, were the strongest issues. Southern Railway and St. Louis and San Francisco featured the renewed inquiry for speculative rails and Sears-Roebuck, Wilson and Pierce-Arrow preferred denoted short covering. The only stock to show weakness was National Enamelling common. That stock dropped 3½ points on further postponement of dividend action.

The market wavered in the first half hour because of pressure against Mexican and Pan-American Petroleum, Crucible Steel and Rock Island. Prices rebounded briskly, however, on the fresh demand for high grade rails, steels, equipments, motors and specialties. High records for a year or more were made by United States Steel, Baldwin Locomotive, American Car, General Electric, Studebaker and Chandler, the gaining 1 to 3 points. Canadian Pacific, Reading second preferred, St. Louis and San Francisco and Pere Marquette preferred gained 1 to 1½ points. American Woolen, National Lead and International Nickel preferred also were strong. National Enamelling recovered all its loss despite the passing of common dividend. Call money opened at 5 per cent.

Extensions of 1 to 6 points to recent gains were made by leaders of the stock market today, but these were substantially reduced in the final dealings on higher money tendencies. Sales approximated 1,200,000 shares. The closing was irregular.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Although wheat showed setbacks in price at the opening today, the market soon rallied and secured a substantial advance. The initial depression was due to rains in the portion of the winter crop territory where drought has been long continued. Active buying set in, however, on the decline, and with quotations at Liverpool and Buenos Aires displaying comparative strength, an upturn in values here was quickly brought about. The opening which varied from 1½ to 2 lower with May 1.43 to 1.43½, and July 1.24½ to 1.24½, was followed by a rise to wet before Tuesday's finish.

Corn ascended to a new high price record for the crop. Indications were said to point to a material decrease in the arrivals of corn here. After opening, 1½c off to 1½c up, May 63½ to 64, the market took a general upward swing. Oats went higher with corn, starting 1½c lower to 1½c gain, May 41½ to 41½, and then rising all around.

The close was nervous ½c to 1½c net gain with May 67 to 67½, 64½. Despite a hesitating start, provisions advanced in response to the arrivals of corn here. After opening, 1½c off to 1½c up, May 63½ to 64, the market took a general upward swing. Oats went higher with corn, starting 1½c lower to 1½c gain, May 41½ to 41½, and then rising all around.

William Dillhoefter Dead

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 23.—William Dillhoefter, 28, catcher with the St. Louis Cardinals, died in a hospital today from typhoid fever. Dillhoefter's home was in Cleveland. He was taken sick January 19, shortly after his return from Mobile, Alabama, where he was married January 14, to Miss Massie Slocum.

The news of the passing away of William Dillhoefter will be learned of here with genuine regret. He was one of the most popular ball players that ever wore a Portsmouth uniform. He was regarded as one of the most promising young catchers in the National League and his death is a distinct loss to Major League Baseball and to his St. Louis Cardinals.

Shortly after "Dill," as he was popularly known, joined the Portsmouth team, he became a real catcher and made hundreds of friends in this city. He was regarded as the best catcher in the Ohio State league and it was just a question of time when he would land with some big league team. He had an arm of steel, was a splendid receiver and was quick to learn the weaknesses of the opposing batsmen. In this respect he was a wizard and Manager Riskey said that after making one trip around the National league he had learned the ins and outs of the opposing batters. He was always a tower of strength to local teams and was a great favorite in local fandom. It seems singular that he and his old manager Pete Childs should pass away within one week of each other. Childs had great faith in "Dill" and often predicted a bright future for him.

Gallant Veterans Tendered Banquet

A George Washington birthday anniversary banquet was tendered the latter part of A. K. veterans last evening by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans and the Sons of Veterans the banquet being served in the Selby factory dining hall at six o'clock. It was followed by a patriotic entertainment that was enjoyed by everyone present.

Heretofore on Washington's birthday anniversary the Ladies Auxiliary have always had a banquet, but never before the Sons of Veterans or G. A. R. to take part. This year the women of the Auxiliary invited the Sons of Veterans to assist in preparing a larger banquet and program to which they would invite the G. A. R. as special guests. The program of the evening was well arranged and every minute of the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

George Washington by Gilbert Dadds. Mr. Dadds told some of the little known incidents in the life of the first president, illustrating the character of the man who led the untold Revolutionary army to victory and laid the foundation for the Western republic. He concluded with the words of Macaulay: "It is a fact that Washington himself while sent out by General Braddock at the head of the army, fired the shot that started a conflict that lasted sixty years in Europe and America, and finally created a great republic. Of the men who gained fame in the conflict, the name of him who struck the first blow stands foremost."

A vocal selection by Miss Hannah Rider was the next number on the program.

Mr. P. J. Kline was right at home while telling of Lincoln, the man he learned to love so well while serving under the stars and stripes during the great Civil War. In concluding his talk, Dr. Kline thanked the Sons of Veterans and the Auxiliary for the feast and the entertainment. He began by comparing America's heroes, Washington and Lincoln, saying, "Washington was the father of his country and Lincoln was his savior—each did his work well. It is wrong to ask which is the greater, Washington or Lincoln. That is just like asking a child whom he loves most, his father or his mother. Washington brought his country through an ordeal, one so great that the task would have been practically impossible of accomplishment by any other man. No other country has ever had a man whom it trusted as this country trusted him."

In a few words he told the story of Lincoln's wonderful life and undying devotion to his country and her cause. He continued, "He made that flag, pointing to the stars and stripes, hang on the wall beside him; truly the emblem of a land of the free." The man in the army, during their many days of hardship, remained loyal to him, they loved their President. The people of this country were likewise devoted to him. When the report of Lee's surrender passed among the men in the Union army, there were shouts of joy which were hushed to be replaced by the deep gloom of sadness when the news of Abraham Lincoln's assassination was received. In his last inaugural address he fervently expressed the hope that the North and South would again blend into one strong nation, and the men who once wore the blue and the grey would again be brothers under one flag, and the words were literally shot out of his mouth when Booth fired the shot that ended the life of the nation's most beloved president."

It is claimed by the state that Banks on October 18, 1921, without troubling himself about going through the formality of obtaining a divorce from the wife he led to the altar several years ago and said he was now to be living in Newport, Ky., with her three children, was wedded to a Miss Ruth L. Edmiston in this city.

The wives met a few weeks ago while No. 2 was visiting in Newport and on comparing notes learned to a certainty, they claim, that both had married the same man and this meeting is what brought about the indictment.

Banks will be arraigned before Judge Thomas in common pleas court Friday morning when he will be given an opportunity to explain.

Sheriff Riskey had been on his trail for some time, but he always evaded arrest until Wednesday. Banks was seen in Manchester several days ago, but left there before being arrested.

High Record For Lunacy Inquests

All former records for lunacy inquests held in the local probate court in a single day were eclipsed Thursday when four such hearings were had in the cases of William McIntire, 55, Lick Run farmer and trapper; Bert Manning, 1805 Sixth street; Belle Woodson 43, colored, of Fifteenth street and Mrs. Ida Freeman, of Rarden.

All four were adjudged insane and were ordered sent to the Athens state hospital for treatment.

Disturbed Meeting; Fined

When Joe Holsinger, 21, Turkey Creek young man, appeared in probate court Thursday morning to meet a complaint of disturbing a religious meeting at the Turkey Creek church on Sunday, February 12 last, he frankly admitted attempting to ride his horse into the house of worship but was unable to explain his strange conduct further than to declare that it was just one of his pranks and that no harm was intended.

Judge Gilliland handed him a fine of $10 and costs and warned him about such conduct in the future.

Charges Willful Absence

Alleging willful absence for a period of more than three years, Alice Holt, 2124 Eighth street, seeks a divorce from Minor Holt, now living in Newport, Ky., in an action instituted in Common Pleas court Thursday through Attorney T. U. Beatty.

In her petition the plaintiff says they were married in Ironton in April 1918.

Mrs. Smith Will Be Tried Friday

The petit jury will return for service in Common Pleas court Friday morning when Myrtle Smith, of Powellville, will be put on trial under an indictment charging her with interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duties.

The indictment against the defendant, who is a prominent resident of Green township, grew out of an altercation it is alleged she had with Sheriff E. E. Riskey several months ago when the officer visited her home to serve some injunction papers in a case brought by the Trustees of the Lutheran church of Green township in connection with the tearing down of a fence.

The hearing is expected to be quite a legal battle and the results will be watched with much interest, especially in Green township. Nearly two score witnesses from that section have been subpoenaed and will appear to testify for and against the accused.

Attorney Theo. K. Funk will appear for the defendant and Prosecutor Sheppard will be assisted by Attorney B. F. Kimble in handling the case for the state.

At one o'clock Friday the case of George Beckstedt against Malinda and John R. Book is scheduled to go on trial. The plaintiff sued to recover $500 on a claim for damages by reason of having been injured and bitten by a dog owned by the defendants last August when he visited their home on Jackson street in the capacity as a gas meter reader. B. F. Kimble and E. G. Millar are the opposing attorneys.

Held As Witness

Frank Grubb, 21, N. W. brakenau, was taken into custody by county officers Thursday and lodged in the county jail where he is detained for the authorities of Jackson county where he is wanted as a material witness in an important criminal prosecution pending in the courts there. An officer is expected to arrive Friday to take Grubb to Jackson.

Mrs. Frayley Gets Divorce

Agnes Frayley, New Boston, has been granted a decree by Judge Thomas divorcing her from Norman Frayley, steelworker and former "fly cop," whom she married in 1918. The decree was granted on the ground of cruelty and in division of their property, the wife was awarded the home in which she lives on Stanton avenue and the adjoining property was given to the defendant.

The case was submitted to the court several days ago. The wife was represented by Attorneys W. H. Sprague and A. Z. Blair and Frayley by Attorney B. F. Kimble.

Marriage Licenses

William D. Lybbeck, 27, former South Portsmouth and open boiler, 21, shoemaker, City. Rev. S. Lindenmeyer.

Isaac P. Burdett, 26, bookkeeper, Rainville, Va., and Money Buchanan, 21, student, City.

Boy Scouts Hold Basket Ball Tourney

The Boy Scouts held their annual Basket Ball Tournament on Washington's Birthday, all three leagues, the Bantam, Junior and Boy Scout competing.

Ten teams were entered in the Bantam Tournament, and six in the Junior.

The honors of the day were carried off by the Sciotoville Christian Church Troop No. 11. Their Bantam team won the Bantam League pennant and they went up a mighty hard alley. They had to meet and defeat every hard team in the league except Troop 15, besides playing one more game than any other troop. They never could have done it, had they not brought down ten players and were able to change about. Their Junior team was also in the finals, but the Junior League pennant was won by the First Christian Troop No. 15. St. Mary's Troop No. 17 won the Boy Scout League pennant.

First Round

The Bantam Tournament was held in the morning, the Sciotoville Troop No. 11 leading off against the Nature Troop. The first half was nip and tuck between them, G. H. Fuller starting for the Nature and Halstead for Troop 11. But in the second half G. H. Fuller got in his work and Troop 11 drew rapidly ahead, winning 11-5.

The second game was between the Radio Trinity Troop and the Central Presbyterian Troop No. 20. Troop 20 took a long lead in the first half, owing to the splendid work of Rose, who played a great field game. In the second the score was closer, Goetz and Gulkar starting, but Troop 20 again scored the most points and won.

Troop 16 of the Allen Chapel and Troop 9 of the United Brethren

Field Goals—Haley 5, Lowe 3, Callaway 3, Fry 1, Donittin 1, Cramer 1.

Troop 17 was unable to put a whole team in the field, so joined with Troop 3 and put in an independent team, which drew the First Christian Troop No. 15 as its opponent. The score was almost a tie at the end of the first half, Westphal being the star for the Independents and Martin for Troop 15.

But in the second half, the Troop 15 players began shooting baskets and won out 20 to 6.

The last game of the first round was between the Rifle Troop of the Evangelical church and Troop 18 of New Boston. Like most of the other games, it was anybody's game at the end of the first half of the score being 10-9 in favor of the New Boston team. Muhlman doing the scoring for the Rifle Troop and Robert York for Troop 18. But in the second half Troop 18 held their opponents scoreless, while shooting baskets themselves and won out, 16 to 9.

Second Round

The first round ended with the First Christian Troop 15, the New Boston Troop 18, Sciotoville Troop No. 11, Central Presbyterian Troop No. 20 and the Allen Chapel Troop No. 10 still undefeated.

The Sciotoville again lead off, meeting and overwhelming Troop 20; Cook was again the star, while Dever, Eagle Scout and captain of the team, played such an effective game at guard that Troop 20 only secured one basket, that being shot by Halse. The game ended 12 to 2 in favor of Troop 11.

Field Goals—Cook 3, Hacquard 2, Rose 1, Martin 1.

Troop 15 of the First Christian church and Troop 16 of the Allen chapel next fought it out. The first half ended 7 to 5 in favor of Troop 16. Biggs doing the heavy work for Troop 16 and Sprague and Abrams being the main stars for Troop 15. But Troop 16 drew ahead in the second half and won out 11-6.

Field Goals—Biggs 3, Callaway 2, Sprague 1, Abrams 1.

Foul Goals—Martin 2, Haley 1.

Semi Finals

Three teams were left for the semi finals, Sciotoville, Troop 11, New Boston, Troop 18 and Allen Chapel Troop 16.

Sciotoville lead off again, meeting the New Boston Troop, and fairly walking away with their opponents. In the first half, though New Boston held their own in the second.

Field Goals—Cook 7, Sloan 3.

Foul Goals—York 1.

Finals

This left the finals of the Bantam Tournament to be fought out between the Sciotoville and the Allen chapel troops. The Allen chapel scouts had been victorious so far, and now that the pennant depended on their efforts, they got an attack of stage fright. They shot and shot for the basket, but only Biggs and Callaway could find it, while Cook, who was the all around star for Troop 11, and Hacquard, shot baskets with great frequency, and Troop 11 won a well earned victory, and the pennant, 19 to 10.

Field Goals—Hacquard 4, Callaway 3, Cook 3, Biggs 2, Halstead 1.

Foul Goals—Cook 1, Hacquard 1.

Junior Tournament

Six teams entered for the Junior Tournament in the afternoon. St. Mary's Troop No. 17 drew Sciotoville No. 11, the Central Presbyterian Troop No. 20 drew the First Christian Troop No. 15, and the First Presbyterian Troop No. 1 drew the Nature Troop.

Owing to a failure of enough scouts of the required age and height to show up, Troop 17 was obliged to default the first game to Troop 11. The Nature Troop then gave Troop 3 a hard battle, but lost out 14 to 7. Hunter did great work for Troop 3, while Kaut and Kennedy did the best work for the Nature Troop.

Semi Finals

Sciotoville Troop 11 and First Presbyterian Troop 3, and the First Christian Troop No. 15 were left after the first round to fight it out in the semi-finals and finals.

Troops 11 and 3 met in the semi-finals, and it was a hard fought game. Troop 3 soon gave up passing work and confined itself to long shots for the basket, while Troop 11 got its passing machinery well oiled and in good working order, fairly out playing themselves. Hacquard was the star, shooting 8 baskets. The final score was 50 to 9, in favor of Troop 11.

Finals

This victory left the two Christian church troops, the First Christian and the Sciotoville Christian, to fight it out for the pennant. It was a fiercely contested game, Hacquard again starring for Sciotoville, and Littlejohn and Roberts for the First church. Both teams fought till the end, and the First Christian Troop No. 15 won out 27 to 9.

Field Goals—Littlejohn 6, Roberts 5, Hacquard 2, Turner 1, Keyser 1.

Foul Goals—Hacquard 3, Keyser 2.

Boy Scout League

Four teams were to have fought it out for the Boy Scout League pennant, but two were unable to put in teams, so St. Mary's Troop No. 17 and the Allen Chapel Troop No. 16 fought it out together. It was just a case of "two much laynder". He did the whole thing, shooting 9 baskets, Jackson starred for Troop 16, making all their points.

More than 300 were present Wednesday night when the Dokies entertained their wives and friends with a musical program and dance in Castle hall, Fourth and Washington streets. Pink carnations were the favors given to the ladies who were special invited guests at this splendidly arranged entertainment.

Musical during the evening was furnished by Kahl's orchestra which includes ten members of the Dokie organization. The instructors were Miss Mary Griffin and Miss Doris Moore. The dancers were Helen Meadows, Eloise Backwell, Hazel Platt, Hazel Buckler, Bessie Ware, Dorothy Correll, Helen Jones, Ruth Hanson and Helen Hunter.

Another solo number on the program was by Chester Higgins who was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Gulkar. Another musical number that proved very popular was the Dokie Trio of organ piano and trombone with Karl Kappus, Herbert Kahl and John Kahl as the musicians.

"A COMMON COLD DESERVES YOUR PROMPT ATTENTION"

TAKE FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

"A common cold deserves your immediate and serious attention." So writes a well known physician, in pointing out the danger of neglecting a cold. "Early treatment of a cold will spare you days of suffering and danger," he says. Doctors will tell you that colds are very likely to develop into serious and even fatal diseases if they are neglected. Many doctors prescribe Father John's Medicine because they know it has had over 65 years of success for colds and coughs. It builds new strength to throw off the cold and prevents its development into more serious trouble. No drugs—all pure food.

GOING UP STREAM

one will find the source of the river. History likewise tells us of the beginnings of all organizations. Catholics believe their church to be Apostolic; because she teaches the same doctrine today, and has taught the same doctrine throughout the centuries which the Apostles taught. She proves her descent from the Apostles, because her leaders, the bishops, through the Bishop of Rome, form an unbroken chain of succession back to St. Peter, who received the power of the Keys from Christ himself. She is the same church founded by Christ on the apostles, Eph. 1:20.

LADIES! DARKEN
YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color, dates back to grandmothers' time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and at the same time, healthy and looking at that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking for any drug store for a bottle of "Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur" you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon, to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark and glossy. —Advertisement.

It is as easy to peel off a corn as to skin a banana. Touch it with "Gets-It" and the corn is gone. For hard corns, soft corns, any corn or callus. All pain stops instantly and the corn proceeds to loosen and soon can be lifted right off.

Your money cheerfully refunded if it fails. But it never fails. Costs but a cent. Sold in Portsmouth by J. F. Davis Drug Company, The Fisher & Streid They.—Advertisement.

Sore Throat Or
Tonsil Trouble
Quickly Relieved!

Sore Throat or Bad Tonsils May Prove Dangerous Use Iodine At Very First Signs

You all know about Iodine—Doctors and Hospitals have used it for more than a century, and it is today one of the best things known to the Medical World for sore or swollen muscles or glands. Ordinary Iodine stains, irritates, often blisters and is never completely absorbed. Because of these disadvantages, its use was in many instances seriously restricted. But a Syracuse Chemist has recently marketed "Lanated Iodine"—a special form of this tried and proven medicine.

Lanated Iodine presents old-fashioned Iodine in a clean and pleasant form—a cold-cream-like ointment that "pulls in" without the slightest thought of stain, irritation or blister, giving quick and effective relief in cases of raw Sore Throats, Swollen Glands and Tonsillitis.

Hundreds of people, even Doctors use this new Iodine preparation nearly every day. James A. Hager and Fisher & Strick or any good druggist can supply you with a generous quantity of Lanated Iodine at little cost. A single trial will convince you of its merits.—Advertisement.

JACK DEMPSEY PRAISES MANAGER

CHAMPION JACK DEMPSEY AND HIS MANAGER, JACK KEARNS

JACK KEARNS, who manages Jack Dempsey, is known as one of the most successful managers in the fight game.

In fight circles, the first thing to do to be a successful manager is to get a chance to handle a champion. The second thing is to get the champion real money for his bouts.

When it comes to getting money, Kearns is just about the last word. Dempsey's share of his fight with Carpenter amounted to only $200,000.

With Dempsey, whatever Kearns says is law. As a matter of fact, Dempsey gives his manager much of the credit for the success the champion has won.

At one stage of his career Dempsey was all set to quit the fight game. Kearns had a difficult time to convince him that he had a big future but finally won him over.

Likewise Dempsey gives Kearns all the credit for the great left-handed fighter. Kearns, however, kept after him to develop a left. He used every method possible, and finally got results. Dempsey's left hand is now as much feared as his right.

TOURNAMENT ENDS

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 23—A pick-up quintet of bowlers organized by Police Judge Bowman, of Canton, and known as the "Bowman Specials," landed first place in the fireman event in the Ohio State bowling tournament, which ended here last night. They had 2,927 pins to their credit.

C. Moses and Bill Elwert, veteran Toledo bowlers, with 1270, won the doubles championship. Elwert led the singles event with 718 and Moses, accredited with 1963, was high in the all-events. Leaders in each event follow:

14 PITCHERS RESPOND

CHICAGO, Feb. 23—Fourteen pitchers answered the call of Manager Killefer yesterday for the initial grill of the year, according to word from Catalina Island, training camp of the Chicago Nationals. For the last two days the athletes had to content themselves with hiking, golfing and climbing, because of the rain.

The playing field has been too wet for practice. But yesterday the players found a high dry spot and a brisk game of high-low followed. Occasionally some athlete would "put on steam" but his exuberance would be checked by Manager Killefer.

A heavy windstorm interfered with the training work of the American league club at Martin Springs, Texas, and the work-out lasted only an hour.

Speaker, who is the pride of base ball fans in Texas, has a surprise awaiting him. A local hotel manager has had bell boys and maids busy for the past week "fixing up things" for the big chief. The manager, "pointed with pride" to the expensively furnished suite reserved for Speaker.

STATE WINS FAIR—COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 23—Ohio State won a wrestling match from Chicago by a score of 28 to 24 here last night.

Ohio won three bouts and Chicago two and each team forfeited one. Martier, Ohio middleweight won two matches, throwing Keeler in the 158 pound class and winning the 145 pound class over Hatoski in the 145 pound class.

Ryan And Shade Should Put Up Real Fight

Cincinnati fans are in for a fistic treat next Monday night when Billy Ryan and Dave Shade, two of the best welterweights in the country, swap punches.

If Ryan can gain a decision over Shade that is more than a championship Jack Britton failed to do. Predictions are that a monster crowd will attend the fight.

One Game As Umpire Enough For Griffith

It isn't generally known, but Clark Griffith, now president of the Washington American League club, was a big league umpire for one game.

Incidentally, "Griff" believes he established a record in his one and only experience as an arbitrator.

During his days as manager Griffith protested many a play, but he never managed to make an umpire change his decision.

In the only game he ever worked, Griffith had the leader of the home team overrule a decision that he had made in favor of that team. We will let Griffith tell the tale:

"The umpires failed to show up for a game in Chicago. Pop Anson, then at the head of the Chicago club, selected me as the Chicago player to do part of the umpiring."

"A play came up at first base in which I declared the visiting batter out. It was a close decision, but I thought I had rendered the correct ruling."

"All the visiting players had a different opinion. They kicked long and loud. It looked as if they intended forfeiting the game rather than accept the ruling."

"Then to my great surprise I heard Cap Anson say 'Come on, quit kicking and start the game. The man was safe. I know it, because my foot was off the bag. He is going to stay there.'"

"Since Anson was running the ball club, I considered myself overruled, and changed the decision. It cost us the game."

"I think that is a record. I don't believe any other major league umpire ever changed a ruling. However, I am not saying that some of them shouldn't every now and then."

Friday: Cleaners vs. Tims.
Saturday: Seventy Six vs. Underwoods at 1:30 p. m.

The Underwoods showed they were out for the pennant, when they beat the almost unbeatable Standard Supply two games out of three, at the high school last night. The Standard Supply had only four regulars and one substitute, but still through the work of their star, managed to snatch the third game out of the fire 21-14. It was just a case of "too much Kendall" for the Underwoods. That lanky bird killed them in a way there was no answer to. Millard and Quinn starred for the Underwoods, both hitting and fielding the ball splendidly, especially considering they were playing on a strange floor.

Favors Summer Ball
As Remedy For Evil
By GEORGE HUFF
Director of Athletics, University of Illinois

With both teams presenting a decidedly patched lineup, the Seventy-Six succeeded in annexing all three from the Cleaners last night. The games were all well played, however, by both sides. The Seventy-Six nearly had a case of heart failure in the second, when the score was 20-5 in their favor, and the game Cleaners crept up till they made it "game ball game," but the Seventy-Six put over the final point.

At the present time college athletes violate rules regarding professionalism in three different ways. One violation is where the athlete competes during the time college is in session with outside teams for money.

Cross and Bierley were the stars for the Cleaners, the latter just kicking the ball as it went over the net, in a way that was most disconcerting to the other side, while Bierley fielded and killed them as well as he slings horseshoes. Wiltsie was the inspiration for his side, leading them to victory, while Peel did the heavy work.

Another way is where the athlete plays while college is not in session—that is, in the summer time, for money.

The third way is where the athlete is hired to go to college either by alumni, citizens, students or athletic authorities.

I believe there should be a change in rules so that a student could compete in athletics for money during the summer time.

Until this rule is changed I do not believe we will ever have any satisfactory enforcement of the rule.

Public opinion supports the athlete who competes for money when college is not in session.

It is difficult to get any law enforcement that is not backed by public opinion.

I believe there would be no great difficulty in enforcing strict rules which would prevent an athlete from competing with an outside team during term time.

I believe that the students would feel that this would be a fair compromise.

The matter of hiring high school boys to go to college presents many difficulties and nothing but vigorous concerted action by coaches, faculty and newspaper writers will curb this evil.

The universities that believe in honesty in athletics must refuse to play with those who recruit teams.

DOWNY OUTPOINTS CARBONE

Games This Week
Thursday: Selby Leaders vs. Bigelow.
Friday: Phi Psi vs. Selby Vets at Wilburth Hall; Selby Culls vs. Selby Vets at high school, umpire Chester Higgins.
Saturday: Selby Leaders vs. Christian Vets at 4 p. m.

The High School Faculty gave the Phi Psi an unexpected jolt, when they put the first game on ice 21-17. The Phi Psi came back with the second 21-15, leaving the third to decide things, and the Phi Psi took it, owing to the good work of Peerless and Ben Selby with these swooping kids. Frosty played a crackpot game of a field game. Prof. Eccles and Coach McDonald did fine killing for the Faculty, their shots being almost unreturnable, while Prof. Appel did stellar field work.

S. H. S. Teams To Play South Webster

Friday night at 7:30 in the Sciotoville high school gym the S. H. S. boys and girls will play the South Webster high school boys and girls basketball games. The S. H. S. girls were defeated by a close score when they recently played at South Webster and they will be out for sweet revenge tomorrow night.

The S. H. S. boys are now in their best form. They have been practicing hard for the state tournament at Ohio Wesleyan and have developed teamwork that is hard to beat. When they played the South Webster boys at Webster recently they won without much trouble and tomorrow night expect to swamp the Bloom township quintet.

Next Wednesday night at seven o'clock the Sciotoville boys five will play the Portsmouth high school five in the P. H. S. gym. The S. H. S. will get the records of this game as the game was to have been played in the Sciotoville gym. On account of the small gym and limited floor space for a crowd in the Sciotoville gym it was decided to play in the P. H. S. gym as the game is sure to attract a banner crowd.

Each of the four teams survivors of the preliminaries will be presented with cups, awarded by the university. In addition 12 cups and 12 medals will be presented to best teams by Delaware business men.

The seventy-seven northern Ohio teams are:

They are Bob Geary and Mitchell, pitchers, and Outfielder Lee, from Cincinnati; Pitcher O. K. Davis from the New York Giants; and Pete Kilgus, infielder of Brooklyn. The telegrams asked the players to hurry their signatures along.

Basketball Classic
At Otway Saturday
Saturday night at Otway the biggest basketball event of the season will take place, with the Otway boys and girls playing the Wheelersburg second team of boys and the W. H. S. girls.

There is considerable rivalry between these schools and the games are expected to be hotly contested. The battles will be staged in the Otway high school gym. The girls' game will be played first with the Wheelersburg high girls having the edge on their Otway opponents. The boys' game will no doubt be hard fought, the Wheelersburg second team being on a par with the Otway quintet.

Praise For Nig
Before Billy Ryan left here last Saturday for his home in Cincinnati he remarked: "This boy Blair is the hardest hitting 140 pound boy I have ever seen. Keep an eye on him if he keeps in condition. He sure looks like a real owner."

Fifteen pitchers, two catchers and three scouts under the leadership of Bert Shotton, make up the early camp.

Wheelerburg There

The Wheelerburg high school basketball five left this morning for Athens where the quintet will take part in the southeastern high school basketball tourney at Ohio University, Friday and Saturday. ## SELECTS GET AWAY FRIDAY

Captain Jude Baesman and his Selects leave Friday morning for Columbus, where they take part in the state tournament being held for independent basketball fives. The winners in the matches at Columbus meet the best team in Indiana for the Ohio-Indiana championship.

Baesman and the Selects won the southern Ohio championship title without a game when sixteen teams entered in the southern section tournament withdrew on hearing that the Selects were to participate.

The Selects play their first game Friday night, and should they win in this contest, they go into the semi-finals Saturday morning.

Butter Hits Bull Over the Fence

Butter hits bull over the fence and makes the circuit of the bases on his drive. In rounding third base the coacher slaps him on the back. It was merely a slap of praise, as the ball had passed out of playing territory when the coacher so performed. A claim the runner should be called out for the coacher's interference, while B claims he is entitled to a home run.

The rule governing such a play, says no penalty should be inflicted when there is no chance to make a play on the base runner. When a batter hits the ball over the fence or into the stand the presumption is that no play is possible and he is entitled to a home run.

The coaching rule was made with the intent to inflict a penalty when the action of the coacher had a direct bearing on the play.
